RRSP Overcontribution Rules

- A monthly penalty tax of 1% is applied to RRSP contributions made in excess of your maximum contribution limits.
- If an individual is over the age of 18, they are entitled to a cumulative over-contribution limit of $2,000 to an RRSP before the penalty tax is applied.

Spousal RRSP Rules

- Any amounts that may be contributed to an individual’s own plan under their personal RRSP deduction limit may be contributed to a Spousal RRSP instead.
- For a 2024 withdrawal, the contributor declares income if contributions were made to any Spousal RRSP in 2021, 2022 or 2023.
- Contributions to a Spousal RRSP may be made by a contributing spouse up to, and including, the year their spouse turns 71 (tax deductible to contributing spouse), provided the contributor has available RRSP contribution room.

TFSA Contribution Limits

- TFSA annual contribution limits are indexed to inflation and will increase in $500 increments.
- Individuals must be the age of majority in their province of residence to open a TFSA. In BC, NS, NB, Newfoundland, Yukon, Northwest Territories and Nunavut, the age of majority is 19.
- If you’ve never contributed to a TFSA, were at least 18 years of age in 2009, and have been a Canadian resident since then, your 2022 contribution limit will be $95,000.

 On amounts over the annual minimum payment.  In the case of unused CESG room, catch-up payments eligible for grant subject to: (i) Lifetime limit of $7,200, and (ii) Annual limit of $1,000.

- Only business share owner or "related" person can have owned shares for 24-month period prior to shares being sold.
- Throughout the 24-month period prior to sale of shares, more than 50% of corporation's assets must have been used principally in an active business carried on in Canada.

Published February 1, 2024

¹ This table outlines the 2024 top combined Federal and provincial/territorial marginal personal tax rates. The rates apply to taxable incomes over $221,708 in all jurisdictions with the exception of the following thresholds: $227,091 in British Columbia, $314,928 in Alberta, $500,000 in Yukon and $1,000,000 in Newfoundland.

Note: The rates do not reflect potential changes that the Federal and provincial governments may introduce in the upcoming budgets.

² Reflects general (non-manufacturing and processing) rates.

³ The Federal small business deduction ("SBD") applies to the first $500,000 of income from an active business carried on in Canada by a Canadian-controlled private company ("CCPC"). It must be shared with associated CCPCs and may be clawed back for "large" corporations with taxable capital of associated corporate groups exceeding $10M and is completely eliminated when the associated group's taxable capital exceeds $15M (similar rules apply for Quebec tax purposes). For taxation years beginning after 2018, the SBD for a year of a CCPC that earns more than $50,000 of passive investment income in the previous year will be reduced by $5 for every $1 of that investment income over $50,000 (it is eliminated at $150,000 of investment income); a CCPC's SBD limit will be reduced by the greater of this new reduction and the existing business limit reduction that applies when associated taxable capital exceeds $10 million. However, note that both Ontario and New Brunswick did not parallel this Federal measure for provincial tax purposes.

Quebec's 2021-2022 budget proposed to reduce the small business income tax rate to 3.2% (from 4%) effective after March 25, 2021. Quebec CCPCs are required to meet the "activities" test or "hours paid" test to be eligible for the province's regular CCPC rate of 3.2%.

The provincial SBD threshold is $600,000 (the rate that applies to active business income from $500,000 to $600,000 is 15.5%).

[†] For some provinces and territories, different rates may apply to smaller estates (less than $50,000). ^{††} Although Quebec does not levy probate fees, Wills (other than notarial Wills) must be authenticated by a verification procedure by the Superior Court of Quebec. A nominal fee applies.

[‡] As part of tax changes introduced in late 2015, the calculation of the Federal charitable donation tax credit was amended to allow higher income donors to claim a 33% Federal tax credit, but only on the portion of donations made from income that is subject to the 33% top marginal tax rate. However, top rate taxpayers should note that this 33% donation tax credit rate is only available for donations made after 2015 and will not be available for donations carried forward from a prior year to 2016 or thereafter.

^{‡‡} The Basic Personal Amount, Spouse or Common-Law Partner and the Eligible Dependant Credit will be increased to $15,705 by 2024. The increases will be phased in over four years, starting in 2020. The increase in the credits will be gradually reduced for individuals with net incomes above $155,625 in 2022 (the bottom of the fourth tax bracket) and will be eliminated for individuals with net incomes over $221,708 in 2022 (the threshold for the top tax bracket). These higher income individuals would not benefit from this increase but would instead continue to receive the existing credits, which are indexed each year to inflation ($12,719 in 2022).
